			particularly useful. We will share the inspiring history and journey of BEP and focus on the current areas of our work in training, research and curriculum development. We look forward to welcoming you. Register here
22-09-26	14:00 – 15:00	Early Years	Our integrated approach in BEP Early Years This session will help teachers in Early Years to understand our integrated approach and how to implement it successfully. We will remind you of the relevant recommendations from the Review and capture what good classroom practice looks like. We will give an overview on using stories and practical tips on how to plan meaningful and engaging topics, with a particular focus on oracy, play and quality talk. Register here
24-09-26	14:00 – 15:00	Primary	Teaching literacy in Primary – our approach What is a good literacy outcome and how do we get our pupils to produce one? What are they aiming for and what do they need along the way? A literacy-based approach has underpinned how we teach English in BEP Primary schools since the Programme began. In this session we will take a fresh look at why this approach is effective and what good classroom practice looks like. We will also explore together our new Literacy Planning Tool (LPT).
